

I do not wish to receive unsolicited calls from anyone who is affiliated with my bank. I feel as though this compromises my rights. I asked to be placed on the no call list to stop calls such as these. If this gives them the right to call how many of its "partner companies" will also have the right to infringe upon my privacy?!